According to [] T-2 there is another and smaller outfit putting out juice in the Cicero area. This group is not considered to be outfit or syndicate connected, but the individuals are life-long associates of ANGELO LA PIETRA and are permitted to operate on a small scale. The individuals making up this group are [] (phonetic) [] According to source, the above [] individuals are closely acquainted with TURK TORELLO and the [] working for ANGELO LA PIETRA. In addition, the above individuals are known thieves and highjackers and will sell their merchandise to ANGELO LA PIETRA. They make small loans and refer all of their larger juice loans to ANGELO LA PIETRA. According to [] T-2, the above [] individuals operate under the cloak of being the syndicate but in fact are not the syndicate but are merely sanctioned by LA PIETRA and in this manner they are able to induce outfit fear to their juice customers and are able to flourish under the reputation of ANGELO LA PIETRA. This group as well as the group under LA PIETRA put out juice loans on the basis of ten per cent a week.

SUBJECT: ANGELO LA PIETRA
AR
(OO: Chicago)

Re Chicago report of SA ROBERT A. VILLEMURE dated 7/8/65 and Bureau's O-1 received by Chicago 9/21/65.

Chicago inadvertently omitted pointing out on the O-1 that the last, or referenced, report in this matter placed it in the pending inactive status. Subject's activities at this time fail to warrant active, continuous investigation; however, informants are being contacted to ascertain whether such investigation would be justified in the future. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] advised SA LEONARD A. WOLF that JAMES "TURK" TORELLO is FIORE BUCCIERI's bodyguard and general handy man replacing ANGELO LA PIETRA, who was too rough and too crude because "TURK" was more polished and smooth in his operations.

Chicago will not submit a report in this matter until November 30, 1965, when the results of informant contacts will be available and at that time consideration will be given to making the subject a target in the Top Echelon Criminal Informant Program. Whether or not LA PIETRA is made such a target will depend upon the receipt of corroborative information regarding his diminishing stature in BUCCIERI's criminal group and his resulting attitude.

A few minutes later, ANGELO LA PIETRA parked his black Mustang Ford across the street from the grill and walked towards the grill. He observed the Agents and immediately turned from walking towards the grill to the direction of the Gabriele Currency Exchange. LA PIETRA left the currency exchange within a few minutes, and while he was waiting to cross Cicero Avenue, his brother, JAMES LA PIETRA, drove slowly past in his light blue Oldsmobile. JAMES LA PIETRA waved to TORELLO and continued driving by.

Shortly thereafter [] entered the grill, he said hello to TORELLO and BUCCIERI, but did not stop and talk to them. He talked to a salesman for "KWIK-SPUDS", who had entered the grill a few minutes earlier, and [] then left the grill.

During the conversation an individual driving a [] Ford station wagon, about a 1959 model, entered the grill. TORELLO addressed this man as [] TORELLO a short time later said he did not know this man's last name. This man made several telephone calls from the pay telephone in the Stop Light Grill and then left.

[] who was involved in the [] with [] was observed to drive up in a [] Chevrolet bearing Illinois 1966 license [] entered the Stop Light Lounge, but did not talk to TORELLO or BUCCIERI.

During the conversation, BUCCIERI mentioned that they have two new horses at "the farm" (Santa Fe Saddle and Gun Club). TORELLO and BUCCIERI both indicated that they had been at "the farm" on the previous day. TORELLO said he had bought and taken to the farm two gallons of chilli.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date January 25, 1967

On the afternoon of January 18, 1967, Special Agents SATHER and WOLF had a conversation at the Stop Light Grill, 1205 South Cicero, Cicero, Illinois, with the following individuals:

11.
FIORE BUCCIERI
JAMES TORELLO
FRANK "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL ← Elorich

During this conversation, FRANK ROSENTHAL furnished the following information: He said that in a few days he was going back to Florida to pick up his things as he was moving to Chicago. He said that while in Florida he would have to serve a sentence of 10 days in jail for driving without a driver's license. He said he was presently staying with TONY SPILOTRO, but was arranging to rent an apartment. At this point, JAMES TORELLO said when he gets his apartment with us, he will be in his apartment all day reading and thinking. TORELLO also mentioned that ROSENTHAL did not have an automobile and that ROSENTHAL was using him as a chauffeur.

ROSENTHAL was asked if basketball was his best sport as a handicapper. ROSENTHAL replied that it used to be but that it took too much time. He said it took him at least four hours a day to keep up with all the basketball sports news. He said he read over 20 newspapers a day and spent almost $100 a week on newspapers. ROSENTHAL said he and the other handicappers read all the sports news looking for little clues which would be overlooked by the average reader. He said for example if a coach of a strong team is playing a weaker team and the coach of the strong team is mad at the coach of the weaker team, it is a good bet that he will keep his first team in longer and really pile up the points against the weaker team.

ROSENTHAL said he knows a handicapper in Chicago who is a genius. He said however, that he buys and reads 40 papers a day. He said he is a "bit of a nut" and won't even tell his own brother how he has picked any particular game.

In a discussion about Chicago's organized crime, ROSENTHAL asked if SA WOLF thought he had to contribute a portion of his profits to BUCCIERI. SA WOLF told him that he believed anyone who worked for BUCCIERI contributed a portion of his profits to BUCCIERI. At this point BUCCIERI said "that's the way it used to be, but not any more". BUCCIERI then said "I don't need any money, I have more than I can spend in three or four life times".

JAMES TORELLO at one point in the conversation said "hey, I hear SANDY SMITH (newspaper reporter) is moving to New York". SA WOLF said he did not know anything about this and TORELLO replied "it's true, I got it from a good source".

During the conversation, ANGELO LA PIETRA entered the grill and talked to FIORE BUCCIERI for a few minutes. He then left the grill, but returned about 20 minutes later. At this time, he called [redacted] out of the grill and both were observed to go into the Gabriele Currency Exchange. [redacted] returned to the grill about five minutes later.

DETAILS:

Surveillances were conducted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) on the Family Amusement Center (FAC), 5913 West Roosevelt Road, Cicero, Illinois, during August and September, 1968.

As previously reported a large scale meeting was held at the FAC on August 5, 1968, which included the following:

[REDACTED]
ANGELO LA PIETRA

[REDACTED]
JAMES TORELLO
JOHN MONTELEONE

JAMES LA PIETRA
[REDACTED]

Following this apparent meeting it was noted that operations at this location were considerably changed. [REDACTED] who was an almost daily visitor at the FAC no longer came to the FAC although he was frequently observed at the corner of Roosevelt and Austin. On August 20, 1968, he did visit the FAC but made an obvious attempt to conceal his identity.

[REDACTED] who was at the FAC almost nightly up until August 2, 1968, no longer appeared at the FAC.

[REDACTED] who had frequently visited the FAC in July, 1968, made only one visit to the FAC after August 5, 1968, and that was on August 12, 1968.

[REDACTED] a frequent visitor to the FAC during July, 1968, and who visited the FAC on August 1, 2, and 5, 1968, did not visit the FAC after August

5, 1968. On September 17, 1968, [] was observed by Bureau Agents to meet with [] in a doorway about three blocks away from the FAC.

JOHN MONTELEONE a frequent visitor to the FAC in June and July, 1968, did not visit the FAC after August 5, 1968, although he was frequently observed at the corner of Roosevelt and Austin. On August 8, 1968, [] was observed to leave the FAC and meet MONTELEONE near Roosevelt and Austin where [] handed MONTELEONE a big bundle of money.

b6

Following August 5, 1968, the number of persons visiting the FAC dropped off, although there was still a number of obvious juice loan customers still making regular visits to the FAC.

It is believed that this group was decentralizing their juice loan operation because of the new federal law covering juice loans. There was no indication that the group was aware of the FBI surveillance in view of the continued pertinent activity that was still observed by Bureau Agents []

On []

[] advised that []

It is to be noted that [] on [] 1968, identified a photograph of ANGELO LA PIETRA as an individual whom he had seen at the FAC when []

On August 27, 1968, at 10:46 PM, ANGELO LA PIETRA double parked his car in front of the FAC and []

b7C

[] got in the car with LA PIETRA. [] and LA PIETRA appeared to be arguing. LA PIETRA kept pointing to a piece of paper in his hand. At 11:00 PM, [] and LA PIETRA entered the FAC.

On the night of August 28, 1968, ANGELO LA PIETRA was in and around the FAC from 9:11 PM to 1:32 AM.

On August 29, 1968, at 1:05 AM, JAMES LA PIETRA joined ANGELO LA PIETRA, [] and [] in front of the FAC. At 1:32 AM, JAMES and ANGELO LA PIETRA and [] drove off together in []'s car.

On September 13, 1968, at 11:38 PM, JAMES LA PIETRA drove slowly by the FAC but did not stop.

The lease on the FAC ran out and on September 1, 1968, the landlord ordered [], the licensee of the FAC, to be out by September 15, 1968. On September 15, 1968, [] asked for and received a week's extension. At the end of this week [] moved out. [] has been hanging out at the Comfy Tap, 5907 West Roosevelt, Cicero. [] has been hanging out at the Blue Sea's Restaurant, 2147 South Cicero, Cicero, Illinois.

On September 17, 1968, at 7:40 PM, JAMES LA PIETRA met [] in front of the FAC. At 7:48 PM, they were joined by ANGELO LA PIETRA. At 8:08 PM, JAMES TORELLO drove up in front of the FAC and ANGELO and JAMES LA PIETRA got in the car and drove off with TORELLO.

Spot checks at the residences of JAMES and ANGELO LA PIETRA during October and November, 1968, failed to show the whereabouts of the subjects.

in the gun shop, the entire time ANGELO LA PIETRA was there.

TORELLO were going to go to the BUCCIERI summer home at

CG 92-1359

Lake Geneva, Wisconsin, to bring back BUCCIERI's gun collection to Chicago so the Government could not confiscate the collection.

[] T-1 further advised in September, 1973, that since FIORE BUCCIERI's death, "his people" are not doing anything, and there is confusion as to whom will take over BUCCIERI's position. ANGELO LA PIETRA has a good chance to be designated "boss" of the BUCCIERI group. b7D

[] T-2 advised in August, 1973, that ANGELO LA PIETRA and JAMES TORELLO were at the wake and funeral of FIORE BUCCIERI and were acting almost as one of the immediate family. LA PIETRA and TORELLO are being considered as a possible successor to FIORE BUCCIERI.

[] T-3 advised in August, 1973, that JAMES TORELLO and ANGELO LA PIETRA would like to take over control of the BUCCIERI group, but are afraid they will be passed over. TORELLO and LA PIETRA are worried that Chicago leaders of organized crime will appoint a senior member of the Chicago "outfit" to succeed BUCCIERI.
